

Your user name is your full six digit member number. See example below

- If your member card has one letter and two digits: b52 – type in b00052 to equal six digits
- If your member card has one letter and three digits: y222 – type in y00222 to equal six digits

Your initial password is your full last name plus your six digit member number:

Example: Clarky00222

The first time you sign in to the system you will be directed to a new screen asking you to change your password.

- You can keep the last name plus member number
- You can enter a customized password
